Chair Decor Ideas

While there's nothing wrong with leaving rented reception chairs exactly as they come, decking out the bride and groom's seats, specifically, is a fun, simple way to bring personality to your wedding.

From floral arrangements, to whimsical signs, and leafy garlands, chair backs can be as simple or ornate as you'd like. The following chair decor is suitable for both chiavari chairs and chairs with white linen covers, and most can be done to match your colour theme.

Table Plan Stands

Having an organised seating plan at your wedding helps everything to run smoothly, and means your guests can avoid the mad panic of trying to find a seat. The wedding reception lasts about 3-5 hours and is a huge part of your big day, so it's important you've got it sorted. If you want to create something a little different with your seating plan why not name the tables after things you and your hubby-to-be love? This also avoids the awkward hierarchy of table numbers too!
