Chair Decor Ideas

While there's nothing wrong with leaving rented reception chairs exactly as they come, decking out the bride and groom's seats, specifically, is a fun, simple way to bring personality to your wedding.

From floral arrangements, to whimsical signs, and leafy garlands, chair backs can be as simple or ornate as you'd like. The following chair decor is suitable for both chiavari chairs and chairs with white linen covers, and most can be done to match your colour theme.

Chair End Ideas

Buckets of flowers, a few sprigs of greenery or small decor items are great ideas for chair ends, and add serious style to your ceremony. Aisle markers not only help to define the space, they also add fresh ambiance to the room.

We can create any of the following ideas for traditional chairs with white covers, chiavari chairs or wooden bistro chairs -whatever seats you choose to have at your venue.

We can arrange most of the aisle decor to match your colour theme, and of course if you have any other ideas, please let us know and we can work from bespoke.

Memory Chairs, Signs & Lanterns

Memory signs beautifully honor cherished loved ones who cannot be present, transforming your wedding ceremony into a touching tribute with framed photos, candles, or heartfelt quotes like "Forever in our hearts". Please note that all memory decorations are intended for use during the CEREMONY ONLY and must remain in place throughout. In the event that any memory decor is lost or damaged, a charge of €50.00 euros will apply to cover replacements.

Table Plan Stands

Having an organised seating plan at your wedding helps everything to run smoothly, and means your guests can avoid the mad panic of trying to find a seat. The wedding reception lasts about 3-5 hours and is a huge part of your big day, so it's important you've got it sorted. If you want to create something a little different with your seating plan why not name the tables after things you and your hubby-to-be love? This also avoids the awkward hierarchy of table numbers too!

A long wooden table is set for a dinner party, surrounded by wooden chairs. The table is covered with a dark cloth and set with plates, glasses, and a central centerpiece of greenery and candles. The entire scene is illuminated by a dense canopy of warm white fairy lights strung overhead and hanging down the sides, creating a magical and intimate atmosphere. The setting appears to be outdoors at night, with a dark landscape visible in the background.

A full-page photograph of a bride and groom in a romantic pose. The bride, on the left, is wearing a white wedding dress with a long, flowing veil and has her hair styled in an updo with a floral hairpiece. The groom, on the right, is wearing a dark suit and has a boutonniere on his lapel. They are standing on a white aisle runner on a grassy hill, with a vast, hazy landscape in the background. Above them is a large, arched structure completely covered in white roses and green foliage. The text 'The Elegant Package' is centered over the image in a gold-colored serif font.

A photograph of a rustic stone archway with a wooden door. The door has a semi-circular transom window above it, divided into several panes. The archway is set into a wall of light-colored, rough-hewn stone. On either side of the door, there is a large, tall arrangement of pink and orange roses. The roses are densely packed and spill over the sides of the door. The overall scene is warm and inviting, with soft lighting.
